

St. Aidan's ICT Vision

At St. Aidan's ICT is embedded across the whole curriculum empowering pupils to become independent and collaborative workers within an environment where learning is fun and ICT removes barriers to learning and ignites excitement for all.

Our ICT vision is to promote social inclusion and create online life long learning communities within the school and through extended networks nationally and internationally.