News and Information

Nursery Places:

We still have a few Nursery places for September 2019. Having children in our Nursery is an excellent way to prepare them for starting school. All children from the age of 3 are entitled to 15 hours care for free and some working parents are able to claim 30 hours free care. Please speak to Mrs Cunliffe for more details or email school

Phonics Screening:

Next week Y1 will have their phonics check. The phonics check is administered by Miss Eddleston and is completed on a 1:1 basis. Please note that we try to make this test feel like a game and ensure the children are not put under any pressure.

Infant Garden:

Our Infant 'Sunshine Garden' in memory of Mrs Atherton is starting to take shape. Miss Grace has done a wonderful job of painting the fence and planters. We hope to purchase at least one bench soon and will plan another fundraiser for some further garden furniture.

Church News:

St Aidan's Church is having a get together Saturday 8th June (this Saturday). Where you are all invited to come and decorate a prayer stone with pens, you can be as creative as you like.

Then you can choose where you want to take it out into the community and leave it, maybe on a bench, a wall or even on someone's doorstep...

One of our groups are walking to the top of the hill. Afterwards we are joining back up in church for some lunch, soup and sandwiches, scones and cake. Please look at the face book page for Church and comment if you are attending then we do enough food for all. Family Service 9th June 10.30 in Church
