

The Importance of Baghdad

Listen to the information about Baghdad in AD 900.

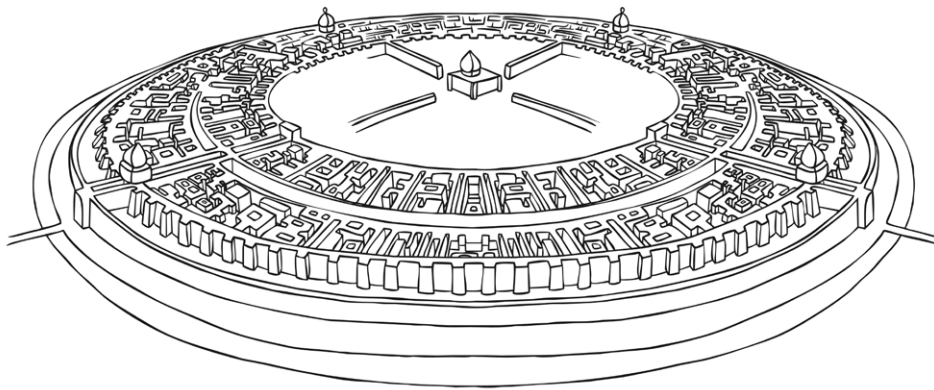

When you hear or read a fact about Baghdad, cross it out from the chart below and write it into the relevant section of your notes (with extra information to help you) on the next page. Add any other information you know or can find out about Baghdad.

AD 752 	Major roads 	Caliph Al-Mansur
Mosque and guard headquarters in the centre 	A circular city 	Next to river and trade routes
First hospitals and universities 	House of Wisdom 	Over 1 million people
Banking system 	1km in diameter 	Houses around the city walls
Libraries and schools 	Markets at the entrances 	Capital of Islamic empire

Baghdad

Location

Features

Life in Baghdad

History